

play safe!  be safe!®

BULLETIN

Summer 1998

Sunnyside Preschool Celebrates with "Hero"

Congratulations Sunnyside Preschool of Everett, Washington!

Teacher Cindy Brengman and her 25 preschool children — the winners of the play safe! be safe! Name the Puppy Contest — were treated to an awards ceremony at the Lake Stevens Fire District 8 firehouse on April 16, 1998, along with parents and firefighter Robert Marshall. KOMO Channel 4, a local television news station, filmed the awards ceremony as the children practiced two fire safety activities: stop! drop! and roll! and crawl low under smoke. Photos were taken by Fred Picou, a business manager with BIC Corporation, who traveled from Portland, Oregon to present the children with their grand prize award: a 25-inch, color TV/VCR. After the activities at the firehouse, it was on to Paesano's pizza parlor for a BIC sponsored party, complete with a dozen pizzas, colorful decorations and a "Dalmatian" cake. The Lake Stevens Journal, Everett's hometown newspaper, featured the ceremony in an article and the county paper, The Herald, printed a story titled: "Top Dogs," which said, in part: "Everybody's a hero when they know fire safety rules." Cindy Brengman said: "play safe! be safe! is a wonderful program. The kids find it a creative and fun way to learn about fire safety." Fire safety is the "in" thing! So, let's all be heroes and always play safe! be safe!

This preschool class takes the cake — the play safe! be safe! dalmatian cake, that is.

Cindy Brengman and her winning preschool class pose at the firehouse with Lt. Robert Marshall of Lake Stevens Fire District 8 (below).

Jessyka Garka shows off her spirit during Sunnyside award ceremony (above).

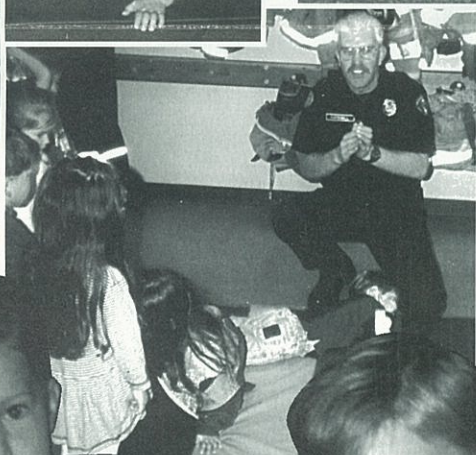

Eric Stevens shows how to crawl low under smoke, right.

Preschool teacher Cindy Brengman, below.

At right, Lt. Marshall practices firesafety techniques with the Sunnyside class.

Braeden Pickering, and Alysia Brengman admire a friend's puppy, held by Shawn Morgan.

